Morning Tea 10-10.30am	We will be travelling by a seatbelt charter bus to Adelaide Oval for a guided tour of areas usually only seen by the sporting legends! Afterwards, we'll explore and have fun in the new playspace at M J McInerney Reserve. Children must be signed in at the OSHC room by 8:15am	Toonworld artists will be leading children in a 'hands-on' model making workshop. Children can create a dinosaur or a mythical creature using a wire framework, which is filled out with foil and tape and then finally covered in clay. After lunch, Luke and Dani will lead the children in a relaxing yoga class.	Ignite VR is coming to OSHC for the day to bring children the best experience available in virtual reality! Children can play a range of age appropriate, fully immersive and interactive VR games through VR headsets. Also, Marco will be leading the children in the creation of real-world balsa wood constructions.	We will celebrate Spring by walking to Belair National Park Adventure Playground ( weather permitting ) for a play and a photo scavenger hunt. After lunch, we will return to OSHC by a seatbelt charter bus to paint plant pots and pot some seedlings with Jasmine. Children must be signed in at the OSHC room by 8:15am PLEASE WEAR APPROPRIATE WALKING SHOES	Wilbur's Wildlife is bringing their engaging and entertaining up close native animal experience to OSHC. Children can pat and hold a wide range of Australian native animals. Afterwards, Nick and Harley's dodgeball and Golden Child tournaments will be back by popular demand!
